SCRIPTURE READING Zephaniah 3:14-20

<sup>14</sup> Sing aloud, O daughter Zion;
shout, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all your heart,
O daughter Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup> The Lord has taken away the judgments against you,
he has turned away your enemies.

The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst;
you shall fear disaster no more.

<sup>16</sup> On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem:
Do not fear, O Zion;

do not let your hands grow weak.

<sup>17</sup> The Lord, your God, is in your midst,
a warrior who gives victory;

he will rejoice over you with gladness,
he will renew you in his love;

he will exult over you with loud singing

<sup>18</sup> as on a day of festival.

I will remove disaster from you,
so that you will not bear reproach for it.

<sup>19</sup> I will deal with all your oppressors at that time.

And I will save the lame
and gather the outcast,
and I will change their shame into praise
and renown in all the earth.

<sup>20</sup> At that time I will bring you home,
at the time when I gather you;
for I will make you renowned and praised
among all the peoples of the earth,
when I restore your fortunes
before your eyes, says the Lord.

P: Word of God, Word of Life.

C: Thanks be to God.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

Come Now, O Prince of Peace (ELW 247, vs. 2)

HOLY GOSPEL Luke 3:7-18

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>7</sup>John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup>Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. <sup>9</sup>Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.” <sup>10</sup>And the crowds asked him, “What then should we do?” <sup>11</sup>In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.” <sup>12</sup>Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?” <sup>13</sup>He said to them, “Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.” <sup>14</sup>Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.” <sup>15</sup>As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, <sup>16</sup>John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. <sup>17</sup>His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.” <sup>18</sup>So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

P: The Gospel of our Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

CHILDREN’S MESSAGE

“What Should We Do Now?” (Pastor Reggie Klindworth)

SONG OF THE DAY

I Wait (All Sons and Daughters)

NEW MEMBER WELCOME

P: Dear friends, we give thanks for the gift of baptism and for these people, one with us in the body of Christ, whom we welcome as new members into the life and ministry of this congregation.

P: In baptism, we are welcomed into the body of Christ and sent to share in the mission of God. We are called to live among God’s faithful people, to hear the word of God and share in the Lord’s supper, to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed, to serve all people, following the example of Jesus, and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth.

Siblings in Christ, do you intend to continue in the covenant of your baptism among God’s people in this place?

New Members: I do, and I ask God to help and guide me.

P: People of God, do you promise to support and pray for these new members in their life in Christ?

C: We do, and we ask God to help and guide us.

P: Let us welcome these siblings in Christ to this community of faith.

All: We rejoice with you in the life of baptism. Together we will give thanks and praise to God and proclaim the good news to all the world.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Advent 2024: "Season of Transformation"

Welcome to the season of Advent! This is a time of waiting and expectation as we watch for the coming of our Savior and the hope he brings into this broken world. This year's Advent theme, "Season of Transformation," is depicted through four phases of the moon that lead us to the full moon on Christmas Eve. Be sure to watch the cross suspended at the front of the Sanctuary as the moon transforms over the next few weeks, mirroring the transformation of our hearts as we prepare for the birth of Jesus Christ.

The theme for this third weekend of Advent is "Season of Transformation: Renewal." With the first quarter moon, the light begins to shine a little brighter as we move one week closer to the coming of Christ. We hear the words of John the Baptist reminding us of Jesus' power to forgive all our sins and grant us life anew.

The Longest Night Service, also called Blue Christmas in the Western Christian tradition, is a day in the Advent season marking the longest night of the year. On this day, some churches in Western Christian denominations hold a church service that honors people that have lost loved ones and are experiencing grief. This worship service is traditionally held on or around the longest night of the year, which falls on or about December 21, the Winter Solstice. This service is meant to acknowledge the long nights just before Christmas, and the struggle with darkness and grief faced by those living with loss. The worship will include opportunities for expression of grief, pain, and heartbreak through song, scripture, and prayer. But they will also focus on the promise of hope found in Christ. Candles will be lit during the service in remembrance of those whom we are missing a little bit extra during this time of year. Leadership will come from the Moravian Church, the ELCA, and UCC, all are invited to attend.
